This book is the perfect gift for any sports fan. It's a celebration of the greatest moments in sports, and a reminder of the power of human achievement. Whether you're a casual fan or a die-hard fanatic, you'll find something to love in Best Plays: Games and Records.

Inside the Book

Best Plays: Games and Records is divided into five chapters, each covering a different sport: basketball, baseball, football, hockey, and soccer.

Each chapter features stunning photography of iconic plays, as well as in-depth analysis from some of the biggest names in sports.

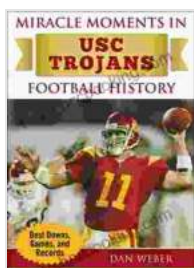

The basketball chapter, for example, features iconic plays from some of the greatest players in the game, including Michael Jordan, LeBron James, and Kareem Abdul-Jabbar. The baseball chapter covers legendary moments from the World Series, including the "Miracle Mets" victory in 1969 and the "Curse of the Bambino" breaking in 2004. The football chapter features unforgettable plays from the Super Bowl, including the "Immaculate Reception" in 1972 and the "Helmet Catch" in 2008. The hockey chapter covers some of the most dramatic moments in NHL history, including the "Miracle on Ice" in 1980 and the "Gretzky Goal" in 1989. And the soccer chapter features iconic plays from the World Cup, including Diego Maradona's "Hand of God" goal in 1986 and Zinedine Zidane's "Golden Goal" in 1998.
