Thaddeus Murfee is a brilliant but troubled attorney. He's known for his sharp mind and his unorthodox methods. When he's hired to defend a young woman accused of murdering her baby, he knows he's in for the fight of his life.

The evidence against his client is overwhelming. She was seen arguing with the baby's father just before the murder. She was also the only person with the baby when it died. But Thaddeus believes that his client is innocent. He knows that she's not capable of hurting her child.

As Thaddeus investigates the case, he uncovers a web of secrets and lies. He learns that the baby's father is not who he seems to be. He also learns that his client has a history of mental illness.

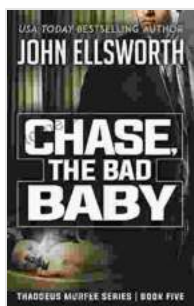

Thaddeus is determined to prove his client's innocence. He knows that it will be difficult, but he's not afraid to take on the challenge. He's willing to do whatever it takes to get justice for his client.

Chase the Bad Baby is a thrilling legal drama that will keep you on the edge of your seat. Thaddeus Murfee is a complex and fascinating character. He's brilliant, but he's also flawed. He's a fighter, but he's also compassionate. You'll root for him to win, even when the odds are stacked against him.
