Edith Pattou, a renowned author of gothic novels, vanished without a trace, leaving behind a legacy of haunting words and a mystery that has captivated the town for decades. Her enigmatic disappearance has become a legend, whispered in hushed tones among the locals.

Enter Emily Carter, a young woman drawn to Ashwood by the allure of Edith Pattou's unfinished masterpiece. As Emily delves into Edith's world, she becomes entangled in a web of secrets, lies, and ghostly apparitions.

With each step she takes, Emily uncovers fragments of Edith's tragic past: a forbidden love, a shattered heart, and a haunting presence that refuses to let go. The line between reality and the supernatural blurs as Emily witnesses chilling visions and encounters strange occurrences that defy explanation.

As the mystery deepens, Emily finds herself questioning her own sanity and the nature of her connection to Edith Pattou. Is she merely a conduit for Edith's restless spirit, or is she being drawn into a dangerous game with unseen forces?

With its atmospheric setting, evocative writing, and spine-tingling suspense, Ghosting Edith Pattou is a captivating tale that will linger in your mind long after you finish reading. It is a story about love, loss, and the enduring power of the unseen.
