Synopsis:

The long-awaited match between Karasuno and Inarizaki has finally come to an end, and Karasuno has emerged victorious. But the victory is bittersweet, as the team must now say goodbye to their beloved third-year players, including Kageyama and Hinata. As the team prepares for the upcoming Spring High Tournament, they must find a way to fill the void left by their departing teammates.

Review:

Haikyuu!! Vol. 37 is a bittersweet volume that brings the curtain down on one of the most beloved sports manga series of all time. The match between Karasuno and Inarizaki is one of the most intense and exciting matches in the series, and it's a fitting end to the third-years' time at Karasuno. The volume also does a great job of setting up the future of the series, as the team prepares for the upcoming Spring High Tournament.
