A Childhood Marked by Hunger and Despair

Born into a life of unimaginable poverty and neglect, Linlin's early years were a harsh and unforgiving journey. Starvation haunted her every waking moment, driving her to desperate measures. It was during this tumultuous time that she first encountered Mother Carmel, a mysterious figure who offered her a glimmer of hope.

Carmel took Linlin under her wing, bringing her to the orphanage on Elbaph, a sanctuary for abandoned children. However, Linlin's past traumas left an unyielding scar upon her soul. The insatiable hunger she had experienced as a child transformed into an unquenchable desire for food and power.

The Rise of Big Mom and the Big Mom Pirates

As Linlin grew older, her ambition and hunger for dominance grew unchecked. She formed the Big Mom Pirates, a formidable crew that quickly rose through the ranks of the pirate world. With her immense strength and cunning strategy, Big Mom established herself as a force to be reckoned with.

Through marriages and alliances, Big Mom extended her influence throughout the New World. Her territories stretched from Whole Cake Island, her opulent headquarters, to countless islands and bounties far and wide. She became one of the Yonko, the four most powerful pirate captains in the world.

The Dark Peculiarities of an Unstable Mind

While Big Mom's strength and influence are undeniable, her mind harbors a deep-seated instability. Her actions are often erratic and unpredictable, driven by a childlike desire for sweets and a relentless pursuit of power.

She possesses an insatiable appetite, capable of consuming entire wedding cakes in a single sitting. Her mood swings can be as swift and destructive as a tempest, turning from jovial and affectionate to vengeful and cruel in an instant.

Big Mom's paranoia and delusions also contribute to her unpredictable nature. She is constantly haunted by the fear of betrayal, leading her to turn against even her closest allies. Her unstable mind is a constant source of danger, both to those who cross her path and to her own crew.

The Matriarchal Dynasty: Big Mom's Loyal Children

Despite her unstable nature, Big Mom is a devoted mother to her numerous children. She has borne over 85 children from various marriages and alliances, each of whom possesses unique abilities and aspirations.

Some of her most notable children include Perospero, her eldest son and a master of candy manipulation; Charlotte Katakuri, a formidable fighter with a precognition ability; and Pudding, a skilled manipulator with a sinister past. Big Mom's children are a diverse and complex group, each adding a layer of intrigue to the Big Mom Pirates.
