

Olive Again: A Novel by Elizabeth Strout

A review by [Your Name]

Olive Kitteridge is a complex and unforgettable character. She's a retired schoolteacher who is struggling to come to terms with her past and her future. She's also a widow, a mother, and a grandmother. And she's a survivor.

Olive Again is a novel that follows Olive through a year of her life. It's a year of change and growth, a year in which Olive learns to let go of the past and embrace the future.
