Against all odds, Glass survives and sets out on a harrowing journey to find the men who betrayed him. Guided by an unwavering thirst for revenge, he endures unimaginable hardships and faces treacherous dangers at every turn.

As Glass relentlessly pursues his quarry, he encounters a cast of characters both good and evil. There's Jim Bridger, a fellow trapper who risks his own life to help Glass; and John Fitzgerald, the enigmatic leader of the men who left him behind.

Through it all, Glass's determination never wavers. He faces starvation, hypothermia, and relentless pursuit, but his spirit remains unyielding. As he inches closer to his goal, he uncovers a web of secrets and betrayals that reach far beyond the boundaries of the wilderness.

The Revenant is a gripping tale of survival, revenge, and the human spirit's indomitable will. It is a testament to the power of one man's determination to overcome insurmountable odds.
