Later that morning, Santa and Christopher were crouching behind a big holly bush in a school playground waiting for playtime. Santa isn't exactly small, so Santa had to make the bush a lot bigger to hide behind, but Christopher had no problems.

"Mm, it looks like snow time and show time."

Santa looked up at the freezing sky, he threw a handful of Christopher's cracker jokes up into the blue sky.

Moments later huge paper snowflakes fluttered down onto the children's heads as they rushed out to play.

"Snow?" they cried and looked up. This wasn't normal snow at all, but where was it coming from?

"It's paper snow!" A boy shouted, "It's freezing cold, it looks like snow, but it's frosty paper."
