Immerse yourself in the captivating world of "The Paper Palace," Miranda Cowley Heller's acclaimed novel that explores the complexities of love, marriage, and the choices that shape our lives.

Spanning decades and generations, "The Paper Palace" weaves a tapestry of interconnected stories that delve into the hidden lives of the Fisher family. At the heart of the novel is Elle Bishop, a successful magazine editor, devoted wife, and mother of three. But beneath the surface of her seemingly perfect life lies a secret that has haunted her for years.

As Elle retreats to her family's summer home on Cape Cod, the isolation and tranquility of the surroundings force her to confront the choices she has made and the paths not taken. Through flashbacks and imagined scenarios, she relives the fateful summer when she first met her husband, Peter, and the passionate affair that followed.

"The Paper Palace" is a story of love, betrayal, and the weight of the past on the present. Heller's evocative prose and insightful characterizations bring the characters to life, making their struggles and triumphs both relatable and profoundly moving.
